

Comm. George Griffith Talks On Grayling Winter Sports Park

Kiwanis Elects New Officers

George Griffith, member of the Conservation Commission from Grayling was the speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling held at the Lone Pine Inn. He was introduced by Vice President Roy O. Milnes who was in charge of the meeting in the absence of President Floyd Davis.

Comm. Griffith spoke of the possibility of the opening of the park and his impressions of what the Department of Conservation might do to help. He spoke of a talk he had with Department Director P. J. Hoffmaster and Parks Chief Arthur Elmer concerning the Grayling winter area.

It was revealed that Roy Trudgoun and John H. Peterson had a Thursday and Friday engagement with Director Hoffmaster in Lansing this week. They will discuss with the director the possibility of opening the park in some manner this year and what the Department could do to aid the community in the project.

Comm. Griffith pointed out that the appointment of an executive committee which included some members who were connected with winter sports before the war might have a distinct advantage to the community in the talks. Chairman Milnes appointed from the Kiwanis Club who voted to morally back the project. Dr. C. R. Keyport, Dr. C. G. Clippert, Trudgoun, Peterson, Charles Moore and Robert Strong to the committee and named A. J. Nelson and Alfred Hanson from outside of the club who it was hoped would act in giving the committee more of a community balance, while gaining the operation knowledge of those two men.

The possibility of obtaining several new ski tows with the thought in mind of opening the park for skiing only this year was discussed. It was pointed out that a large part of the expense of operation of the park was in keeping the toboggan slides and ice rink in shape and that it was doubtful if enough time was left to get them ready whereas the ski tows could be put into operation quickly and inexpensively.

Election of officers for the coming year was also held by the club with Roy O. Milnes being unanimously elected to serve as president of the club during the coming year. Second vice president Max Davenport was advanced to first vice president and Charles Piper was elected as the new second vice president. J. Lorne Douglas and Ernest Johnson were elected as the two new members of the Board of Directors.

Drop Close Game To East Jordan

The Grayling Vikings will invade Gaylord tomorrow afternoon to take on the only other winless team in the Northern Class C Conference and by comparative scores should easily gain a victory.

Where the Vikings have been losing ball games by one point, Grayling has been taking a bad beating. The powerful East Jordan eleven came to Grayling last Friday and met the injury riddled Grayling Viking squad from whom they were to wrest an easy victory.

For the first half the ball game rolled along pretty well according to forecasts.

The Vikings without the services of their regular quarterback and losing replacement, Ted Davenport on the third play of the game due to a sprained ankle coupled with 5 fumbles in the first half made it appear as though East Jordan could easily run up a good score.

However as the second half

Prophetic Bible Lectures Featured

"What Is This World Coming To?" is the subject of the first of a series of pictured prophetic Bible lectures given by L. W. Hyde at 7:45 in the Grange Hall, Grayling, this Friday, October 20. The same subject will be shown in Frederic on Monday, October 23 in the Town Hall, and Tuesday evening, October 24, at Lovells in the Town Hall, same time—7:45 P. M. in each place.

"Will all mankind be blown off the map?" Will Russia gain control of Europe? Can the U. N. succeed? Can the Pope succeed where the U. N. may fail? These are a few of the questions that will be answered from Bible prophecy," revealed Mr. Hyde.

"The lectures will be illustrated with colored 35 mm. filmstrips which will make it easier for both young and old to understand, making it possible to learn more in less time," it was stated, "and will be

Bill Worden was taken from the game at this point for a well deserved rest as it was his brilliant running and driving that set the stage for the Viking score. On the very next play, his brother Duane suffered a broken nose, and Bill returned to the game with fire in his eye.

McClain spotted an attempted East Jordan sleeper play and again intercepted a East Jordan pass on about the Grayling 40 and brought it back to midfield stripe. From there it was Worden up the middle and McClain around the ends and the Vikings marched for their second touchdown of the quarter. The try for extra point failed due to a fumble. The return of the kickoff ended the ball game and left Grayling still winless, as East Jordan triumphed by a 13 to 12 score.

Grayling and East Jordan both made 11 first downs with Grayling rolling up 201 yards rushing to their opponents 188. They netted 8 yards passing to East Jordan's 5. Grayling attempted 9 passes, completed 1 and had 1 intercepted. East Jordan attempted 5 passes, completed 1 and had 2 intercepted. Grayling averaged 34 1/2 yards on punting to East Jordan's 28. East Jordan recovered two Viking fumbles while Grayling grabbed 1 of East Jordan's. Grayling was penalized 35 yards while East Jordan lost 60 yards by penalties.

"Progress Is Tomorrow"

Victor Hugo once wrote, "Would you realize what Progress is, call it Tomorrow." These words take on added meaning with the current observance by our domestic petroleum companies of Oil Progress Week. Oil, by its vital role in our nation's growth, has cast ahead the certainty that it will loom ever larger in helping build a better tomorrow.

Oil Progress Week calls for a report by the men and women of oil of what they are doing to meet our daily needs for petroleum products. What they do can be seen just by looking about us to note that oil fuels our automobiles, ships, trains and airplanes, that it heats our homes, that it powers and lubricates our industrial economy and that without it we could enjoy few of the startling wonder of the 20th Century. All who depend on oil—and that includes everyone—should recognize and applaud its accomplishments and progress since its beginning 91 years ago.

In what our nation's oil men are doing today, we can see what they will give us in the tomorrows to come. The oil which men lift from the earth is becoming an increasingly important source of a myriad raw materials for plastic, for medicines, for synthetic substances of all kinds. Just as oil-derived synthetic rubber, for example, freed us from dependence on distant natural rubber sources, so may oil-derived "wonder drugs" now in the laboratory-experiment stage provide abundant supplies of healing medicines. The new tasks will, of course, be in addition to the scores of jobs now ably handled by oil.

In the fulfillment of civilian needs and desires, as in the strengthening of our national defense, the oil industry's record leads us to suggest a paraphrase of Victor Hugo to say, "Would you realize what Progress is, call it Oil."

"How are things
in the oil business?"

—Mister, let me tell you...

"There are now some 45 million cars, trucks and busses operating in the U.S.—and with 250,000 service stations covering the country from coast to coast, the competition for this business—your business—is simply terrific."

"You benefit—because this competition pays off for you in higher standards of service, helping bring you better and more efficient oil products."

"Yes, Mister, outfits like ours are out to beat everybody and his brother in winning and holding your trade. We'll pull out all the stops in keeping your car serviced and rolling smoothly. That's plain good business for us."

"We're just one of the thousands of individual companies that make up the oil business. The same spirit of rivalry that makes us tick is working for you in every branch of the industry—refining, production, transportation, research and marketing. Competition produces better and better oil products—better service for you and your family."

"This is Oil Progress Week. But the way we figure, Oil Progress Week is every week of the year."

Want a long run for your money?

Better Buy Buick!

YOU want a new car to be tops in things like style and room and comfort and power—

—and a thrill-packed fifteen minutes with the nimble number pictured here will show you it has all these things in abundant measure.

So you ask us—how about money? What does it cost to buy a Buick—and to own one?

All right—let us ask you some questions.

Take first cost. Do you know that Buick prices start down at a level below what you'd pay for some sixes—and that every Buick, on a cents-per-pound basis, is a stand-out buy?

Take operating cost. Do you know that the bang you'll get from Buick's Fireball power comes from a valve-in-head engine—recognized by engineers as a thrifty saver of fuel?

Do you know that owners of 1950 Buicks are writing us rave letters, saying that this year's version is the most economical Buick ever built?

Do you know that such comfort features as coil springs on all four wheels protect the car as well as the passengers—and throw in an extra saving because they need no servicing, and are practically breakproof to boot?

Do you know that Dynaflo®—in addition to keeping you fresh as a daisy on a day-long drive—caps its convenience with savings on tires, cuts down the strain on transmissions and engines—and eliminates all friction clutch repairs, because it hasn't any?

Take final cost. Do you know that when the owner of a Buick gets a yen for a later model, the prices that Buicks command on a used-car lot are the ultimate proof of their long-run value?

So if you want a real run for your money, better buy Buick. And the first step is very simple: Go see your Buick dealer—soon—and get an order signed.

* Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on Super and Special models.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT—This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

Farmers Loan Plan Explained Fully

The major part of Farmers Home Administration loans in Otsego and Crawford Counties this year are being used to help farm families readjust their work to changing conditions. Some loans will be made to enable veterans and other young farmers to become established. Farmers Home Administration loans tend to encourage the family farm as the base of American Agriculture. Are agency, today, discourages seasonal loans and ones where poor farming will be perpetuated. Farmers who do not want willingly to co-operate with Mr. Ray McMullen, the Otsego County Agricultural Agent, or Mr. Orville Walker, Crawford County Agricultural Agent, Production Marketing Association, or Soil Conservation Service, generally find a loan difficult.

During the past year over 100,000 farmers in the country, who were unable to get operating or production credit elsewhere, borrowed from the Farmers Home Administration, according to John C. Young, County Supervisor. His office is located in the Otsego County Courthouse, Gaylord, Michigan.

According to Mr. Young, these loans run up to five years and are based on individual farm and home plans calling for good practices and such reorganization as will assure an adequate income.

Rev. John Enselmann Installed As Pastor

On Sunday, October 8th, the Rev. John Enselmann was installed as pastor of the Grayling Evangelical Lutheran Church at special services conducted by Rev. Richard Sorenson of Marlette, District President. That evening a supper and reception was held at Danebod Hall to welcome the new pastor and Mrs. Laursen. The tables were beautifully decorated with autumn foliage, berries and candles, and after partaking of a sumptuous supper, a short program was held in the auditorium, which was also appropriately decorated for the occasion. There was a large group present, as well as many friends from the Lutheran Church of Roscommon.

Archer Bags Huge Black Bear

The largest black bear ever taken in Michigan with bow and arrow has been shot by archer Dean P. Loveless, Hamtramck, while hunting 15 miles north of Newberry.

Conservation department game men speculated that the over 600-pound male bear also may be larger than any taken with a gun.

The giant animal dressed out at 555 pounds and before probably weighed between 50 to 100 pounds more, according to M. K. Summers, department district supervisor who examined it. In 1943 an estimated over 600-pound bear was shot with a gun in the Dead Stream area by a Houghton Lake area native, Arthur Jackson.

The bear taken by Loveless had six by nine-inch front paws, over 40-inch collar size and was seven feet and two inches in length.

Loveless says this was his fifth bear and ninth deer in nine years of hunting with the bow.

Hunting with his wife, Lillian, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burnell of Detroit, Loveless reports he shot the bear with a 70-pound bow from a distance of 40 feet. He says the bear ran about 40 feet before dropping. The arrow not only pierced the heart but extended a good two inches through the other side of it.

Loveless says he has yet to get a deer with bow and arrow this season.

Made in widest variety
of engine-body-chassis

Think twice today
When you buy a truck!

THAT new truck you're considering may have to last a long time. So you'll be wise to look at a GMC for these important reasons:

GMC's are built by the world's largest exclusive manufacturer of commercial vehicles—with the broadest truck engineering experience.

GMC's are real trucks. Engine, transmission and frame, as well as cab and axles,
are all specially truck-built to give you longer service.

GMC truck-built engines have high horsepower with higher sustained torque—greater pulling power. They are built to give extra years of service with less maintenance.

GMC extra-value features include Syn-chro-Mesh transmission, Tocco-hardened crankshaft, full-pressure lubrication, re-circulating ball-bearing steering gear, airplane-type bearings and Lifetime Weather-sealed cabs as standard equipment on practically all models from 1/2 ton up.

That's why more truckers are buying GMC's today than ever before—experience proves them the best in the long haul!

These days you can't tell from the price tag how much quality a car holds. Ford, for example, is still priced with the lowest... yet in other respects it's in the fine car class. Take its styling, for example, for two years in a row Ford has been the recognized fashion leader.

Like America's finest cars Ford offers you a V-8 engine. No other low-priced car does. Nor does any other car at any price offer you a choice of V-8 or Six engines. And remember, Ford's V-8 costs hundreds less than most sixes—Ford's Six costs even less.

"Oil Progress Week" ... is every week!

SUPPLYING you with the most oil products possible is only part of the job of the oil industry. The research that helps you get new and constantly improved oil products is another important job. Rival petroleum firms spend over 100 million dollars in scientific oil research every year.

You can see the result in almost any field from the increased efficiency of your car's engine powered by new and better fuels to major advancements in chemtry, medicine, farming and manufacturing.

Crops are now protected from freezing by an artificial fog ... harmful insects are destroyed ... rust is prevented ... clothes are waterproofed ... new medicines developed ... industrial production increased ... all with the help of oil and its by-products.

October 15th-21st is "Oil Progress Week!" But to a nation moving forward with oil, Oil Progress Week is every week in the year.

Your Progress and Oil Progress go hand in hand
